Coach & Facilitator

Sharanya Rao is an experienced career, executive, and team coach who dedicates her expertise to fostering positive and sustainable transformations in individuals and organizations.

Through her adept use of Co-Active coaching, mindfulness, and cultural awareness, Sharanya empowers leaders to cultivate inclusive work environments by gaining personal clarity. She provides a supportive yet challenging space, encouraging clients to introspect, embrace accountability, and take meaningful action.

As a workplace coach, Sharanya assists professionals in aligning their career aspirations with impactful outcomes, supports leaders seeking to enhance their influence, and collaborates with companies to build inclusive teams.

Her rich and varied background, including her experiences as a former lawyer, her 20-year service in non-profit organizations, and in government, equip her with a unique blend of critical thinking, analytical skills, and a service-driven mindset. Having lived and worked in four countries, she offers a culturally attuned perspective to her clients.

Sharanya holds a Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in Law and is a Professional Certified Coach with the International Coach Federation and the Co-Active Training Institute. She is also a certified consultant for the Leadership Circle Profile and EQ-i 2.0 and EQ360 Assessments and is trained in Organizational Relationship Systems Coaching (ORSC)
